

ORNAMENTAL HORTICULTURE (ORH)

ORH2527 FLORIDA FLORA AND ECOSYSTEMS LANDSCAPES (3.00 Credits)

This is an introductory environmental science course designed to teach students plant ID and environmental aspects of Florida's diverse ecosystems.

Total Contact Hrs: 48.00

Lecture Hrs: 48.00

ORH4256 NUTRITIONAL MONITORING AND MANAGEMENT (3.00 Credits)

This course is designed to teach students the techniques for determining, interpreting, and managing the nutritional status of landscape and container grown greenhouse and nursery crops. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to determine, interpret, and adjust: Water quality; Substrate physical parameters; Substrate chemical parameters; Irrigation practices; Fertilization practices.

Total Contact Hrs: 48.00

Lecture Hrs: 48.00