

PROJECT MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATE, TECHNICAL CERTIFICATE

Program Code: 6362

Career Pathway: Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math

Program Entrance Requirements: HS Diploma or GED.

Program Description: The content includes but is not limited to balance of business and technology components and allows the student to gain foundational skills in Technology Project Management. The certification focuses on foundational content related to predictive traditional project management methodologies, agile project management frameworks/methodologies, and business analysis frameworks. The content includes but is not limited to balance of business and technology components and allows the student to gain foundational skills in Project Management.

Course	Title	Credits
CIS1513C	PROJECT MANAGEMENT	4
CTS1133C	A+ COMPREHENSIVE	4
ISM2308C	AGILE FUNDAMENTALS	4
Total Credits		12

Students are strongly encouraged to meet with an advisor (<https://students.broward.edu/resources/advising/>) to create a personalized educational plan.